Featured team member

Kaisa Silvennoinen works as a research assistant at the University of Jyväskylä, Finland. She holds a master's degree in educational sciences. She also has previous experience working on several educational research projects at the University of Jyväskylä.

Project news

News from all countries

The team will have the second in-person team meeting at Stockholm University, Sweden on the 12-13th September 2022. Following the project meeting, Dr Nataša Pantić and Dr Marc Sarazin from the Edinburgh team, together Prof Anna Lund from the Swedish team, will attend the mid-term event hosted by Nordforsk on the 14-15th September in Stockholm.

The first output from the filmmaking workshops is now available. "Not Alone" is a short film made by the students of Leith Academy, Scotland. In it, they express the need to help those students that feel alone at school. Don't miss it!

News from Scotland

Data collection for the Scottish team is almost complete for the entire study – thank you to the schools who have taken part! Only a few interviews are still planned for the new year. Meanwhile, the team is powering ahead with analyses in preparation for TEAMS and funder meetings in September.

News from Sweden

TEAMS Sweden has finished Wave 3 data collection very successfully. They conducted many interviews, carried out fieldwork and executed all the online data collection tools in both of their schools. The team is currently analysing the collected data.

The research team finally managed to meet other project members in person in Jyväskylä in June to discuss the project's development and future steps. The team would like to thank team members from the University of Jyväskylä for their hosting for two very productive days.
